COD Glass Fused Glass Cathy co-owns, runs and teaches glass courses at Glass By Design. Her work can be found here and is inspired by everything she loves: Colour, Sport, Landmarks, Games, Music and particularly play on words! She likes to keep the 3D effect on the glass, usually requiring three firings. She is inspired to keep experimenting with glass particularly for bespoke commissions.

Gorgeous Glass Ltd

-Stained Glass artist, Angelina has been working in glass for 25 years. She is inspired by our architectural and coastal heritage making a range of stained glasswall panels, up-stands and window hangings. Much of her work combines metal and wire work to create real statement pieces.

Glass demonstrations will be given throughout the weekend.
Glass By Design offers a full teaching programme.

Mari Wirth

exhibiting Saturday only

email:mtreeleaf@gmail.com
www.marirthpapercutart.com

Facebook: Mari Wirth – TreeLeaf-

Originally from Japan, I am a paper-cut artist, graphic designer and illustrator. My artwork is narrative, inspired by the flora and fauna in a meadow, alongside hedgerows, in woodlands, at coasts. The original images are also used as stencils to create screen prints on paper and fabric, and laser-cut.

11 - Vermetta O'Connor

email: vocart_uk@yahoo.com
Web site www.vermetta.co.uk

I am a mixed media artist working in the Vale of Glamorgan. Experimental print making, photography and painting are often combined together to produce the effects that I like. The sea and beaches, driftwood and pebbles feature strongly in my work.

11 - Jill Schoenmann

After leaving Cardiff College of Art, I ran my own Dress

Design business for many years, but always found time for drawing and painting, as well as experimenting with mixed media. I have now started painting again and found this to be an absorbing subject."

10 - Anne Bowsher Open Saturday and Sunday only

12 Cherwell Road, Penarth CF64 3PE

My interest in art started years ago when I studied ceramics at college. 20 years later I took up painting mainly using oils and watercolour. The inspiration for my work comes from my love of the Cornish and Welsh landscapes and I also enjoy painting still life compositions.
I work at home in my garden studio.

9 - Sandra Arthur

Open Saturday and Sunday only

71 Plymouth Road. Penarth CF64 3DD

When I retired four years ago I began drawing and painting. I have joined local art groups and paint at home and outside in the landscape. I relish the process of learning and paint in a variety of styles and media. I have attended courses to help me understand how to apply particular techniques. I'm looking forward to this opportunity to share with you my sketchbook preparation and some of my completed work.

8 - Melissa Craig

Open Saturday and Sunday only

15 Dingle Road, Penarth, CF64 2TW.

Entrance via Bute Lane

email: melissafineartgallery@gmail.com
www.melissafineartgallery.co.uk

My recent work focuses on transforming people's favourite photographs into personalised watercolour paintings, including scenes from across the Vale and portraits of some of the local pets. I have also created realistic masks using air-drying clay, intricate carvings from Penarth alabaster and mosaics made of china and glass.

5 - Haf Weighton

OPEN- SATURDAY ONLY

11 Hickman Road, Penarth, CF64 2AJ

www.hafanhaf.com

An award winning artist who has recently showcased her work at The Saatchi Gallery, London. Weighton uses the traditionally feminine language of thread to interpret, soften and overlap the traditionally male format of architecture. Her exhibition for open studios portrays stitched, painted architecture of Penarth, Cardiff and London.

6 - Sarah Fisher -

14 Cwrt y Vil Road Penarth CF64 3HN

Tel 02920708348

www.sarahfisherfeltmaker.com

I am a feltmaker, and my colourful collection on show ranges from small items such as jewellery, flowers and vases to bags, hats, scarves, wall hangings and three dimensional sculptures. I shall be very happy to demonstrate the art of feltmaking and show how, miraculously, sheep's fleece can be made into a strong and decorative fabric by just using soap and water. You can have a go if you want!

7 - Angela Hart Yarn N Yarns

22 Cornerswell Road, Penarth CF64 2UZ

Telephone 029 2071 2097

Email: yarnnyarns@yahoo.com

Yarn N Yarns is a small local yarn shop currently under the care of owner Angela Hart. Angela was taught to knit and crochet at a young age and the needles haven't been out of her hands since. Knitting and crochet are versatile art forms and can be used to create beautiful art pieces or wonderful practical items from garments to jewellery to homewares. We hold regular classes and workshops.
Crochet demonstrations will be given throughout the weekend.

11 - Tim John

www.timothygwynjohn.com

I am an artist and furniture maker, specialising in interactive sculptures that combine traditional craft techniques with electronic sound and kinetics. My focus is how we relate to each other in an age of technological devices: the paradox of needing to belong and the 'noisy', ephemeral nature of digital sharing.

11 - TURNER HOUSE (FFOTOGALLERY) PLYMOUTH ROAD, CF64 3DH

11 - Silk Moon ~ Amanda Rosoman

Silk Moon is the Brand Name of Amanda Rosoman Amanda creates her artwork using a combination of stitch, fabric and paint incorporating ink/kense medium and free motion machine embroidery. Commissions are welcome to create unique items for individual clients Examples of Amanda's artwork will be on display including items for sale. Demonstrations of free motion embroidery and fabric painting.

11 - Claire Tilling

email: cemtilling@gmail.com

After studying Fine Art alongside Archaeology Claire worked as a Florist Events Designer in London. She uses her eye for colour and love of up-cycling to create 'Sculptures for the Head'. Looking beyond the pretty....crumbling buildings, graffiti and stickers. Nuisances to some, but look closer...you might just think some of these are beautiful as the colours and textures pop out

11 - Francess

After 30 years working as a therapist I write about emotional links between mind, body and spirit. I convey these with appreciation for all creation, in particular the miracle of life in the human body. I will be exhibiting photographs and poems from my Parousia: Love's Light Exhibition at the Turner House Gallery www.Frances.org. Healingpoems999@gmail.com

11 - Karen Grey

I'm about....

Sunny seascapes and portraits
Raphael and Michelangelo
Sketches an alphabet
And even drawing in the dark!
I'm about....pastels, pen and ink
Felt tips and acrylics
Vibrant reds, pastel hues
And my favourite colour....blue
Love coffee and cake

14 - Ruth Darling

2 Dingle Road Penarth CF64 2TW

Tel: 029 20253506

email:ruthdarling@hotmail.co.uk
Website: www.ruthdarlingart.com

I have lived in Penarth for 37 years with my family. I have always loved art, and have painted for the last 20 years. I love the sea, so I paint a lot of seascapes, whether a still calm scene or a wild stormy sea.

13 - Mark Robinson

37 Wordsworth Ave, Penarth CF64 2RL

Tel: 029 2031 1944

email:rrobbo371@outlook.com

Oil painting is the backbone of my work, backed up with sketching trips in Penarth and out and about in the Vale of Glamorgan. This year I have been drawn to the characterful churches that often form the centrepiece of the small villages that dot the Vale.

12 - Pauline Williams Art

Open Saturday and Sunday only

10 Victoria Road, Penarth. CF64 3EF

Tel: 0770 8439848

www.paulinewilliamsart.com

Working in oils, pen and ink or watercolour I have a variety of dramatic and moody landscapes, inspired by the rugged Welsh countryside. These are complemented by a series of figure drawings, including nudes, portraits and musician drawings, drawn from life to best capture the character of the 'sitter'.
